2026 ANNUAL MEETING OF MEMBERS

The 88th Annual Meeting of Members of Norris Electric Cooperative was held on Saturday, February 28, 2026, at the Newton Community High School in Newton, Illinois.

At 10:00 am Board President Gordon McClure called the meeting to order and welcomed members.

Following the National Anthem and Pledge of Allegiance, performed by Kiley Phillips, Board Director, Ava Lemmon, gave the invocation. President McClure then informed the audience there was a quorum of 150 or more members present and business could be conducted.

Two children, Benjamin Huber and Logan Wright, were chosen to draw two names from the registration slips for the $100 early bird prize. Names drawn were Everett Kitchen of Jasper County and Shad Street of Jasper County.

Board Secretary Dan Strine read the Proof of Mailing of the Annual Meeting Notices. Notices for the Annual Meeting were mailed out on January 27, 2026.

President McClure asked if there were any additions or corrections to the 2025 Annual Meeting Minutes which were printed in the programs handed out during registration. There were no corrections or additions. A motion was made by Dean Dietrich and seconded by Rick Alderson. Motion carried.

Board Treasurer Dan Strine gave the treasurer's report. Mr. Strine reviewed the financials posted in the program and stated the records of Norris Electric Cooperative were maintained in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Practices and Government Auditing Standards.

Manager Phillips reported that the cooperative experienced a year of steady progress, disciplined stewardship, and continued commitment to cooperative principles of local control and member ownership. The system achieved a 99.92% reliability rate despite weather challenges, including minimal outages during a recent snowstorm. While transmission-related issues remained the largest contributor to outages, crews responded promptly and restored power safely and efficiently. In 2026, the cooperative completed 25 miles of three-phase line upgrades, replaced 652 aging poles, and continued system improvements to strengthen storm resilience and backfeeding capabilities. Vegetation management remained a priority, with 750 miles of line trimmed, and approximately 10% of poles inspected and treated annually. New technologies, including drone inspections and infrared scanning, were implemented to proactively identify potential issues. The cooperative also began transitioning to new system software, with accounting already live and a new billing platform launching in May. Members were advised of temporary adjustments during the transition period.

Financially, the cost of power and increasing transmission charges remain the primary expense drivers; however, the cooperative anticipates maintaining current rates for another year. A new 10-year power supply agreement with Dairyland Power Cooperative will begin in June 2026. The cooperative returned $1.3 million in capital credits to members from 1990–1991, bringing the ten-year total of retired capital credits to $18 million. Appreciation was expressed to the board of directors for their leadership and to employees for their dedication to reliable service.

Manager Phillips announced her retirement in 2026, marking her final annual meeting after 44 years of service. She reflected on the many changes experienced during her tenure, expressed gratitude to the board, employees, and membership for their trust and support, and voiced confidence in the cooperative's strong foundation and future. She also thanked her family for their encouragement and sacrifices throughout her career and reaffirmed her continued belief in and support of the cooperative as a member.

Brent Ridge, President and CEO of Dairyland Power Cooperative provided a comprehensive presentation on Dairyland Power Cooperative, outlining its organizational structure, generation and transmission assets, long-range planning initiatives, and strategies to address potential rate pressures. Information was shared regarding Dairyland's service territory, asset base, and wholesale power competitiveness. Brent also reviewed long-range transmission projects, generation mix, and factors that may impact future rates, along with mitigation strategies to maintain cost stability.

The Board President, Gordon McClure, welcomed members and thanked them for their continued engagement and commitment to the cooperative. He reflected on the cooperative's longstanding mission to provide safe, reliable, and affordable electricity, noting that while much has changed over the years—particularly in technology—the cooperative remains focused on adapting thoughtfully to industry challenges. He addressed ongoing concerns regarding the loss of baseload generation and emphasized the importance of maintaining dependable power sources to ensure future reliability. The Board reaffirmed its commitment to sound financial decisions that support rate stability and reliable service.

The President recognized the dedication of the cooperative's employees and manager, Tamara Phillips, for their leadership and service. He highlighted Manager Phillips 44-year career with Norris Electric, noting her progression to General Manager and her role in guiding the cooperative through significant initiatives, including the recent power contract with Dairyland. On behalf of the Board, management, and employees, he expressed gratitude for her integrity, leadership, and commitment to members, and presented her with a plaque in appreciation of her service.

The President then introduced Luke Johnson as the incoming manager of Norris Electric, noting his extensive cooperative experience, including prior roles as a lineman, operations manager, and general manager at other electric cooperatives, and invited him to address the membership.

Incoming Manager, Luke Johnson, shared that he began his cooperative career 26 years ago and worked his way through multiple roles, bringing extensive experience and a strong commitment to cooperative principles. He emphasized the importance of safety, reliability, affordability, and community, and expressed his dedication to serving the cooperative and its members to the best of his ability.

Special Guests were recognized by President McClure. Those guests include Randy Milliman, Aide to Senator Chapin Rose, Baylee Millard Legal and Government Relations Coordinator at AIEC, Lisa Cherry Assistant Editor of the Illinois Country Living Magazine, Doug Cook Audio and Visual Coordinator at AIEC, Alex and Jessica with Air Evac, Darren Iffert with Ambraw Power, Brent Ridge Dairyland Power President and CEO, Dan Tindell, Dairyland Power Board Member, Mike Casper Manager at Jo-Carroll Energy, Joe Mattingley Board Member of Jo-Carroll Energy, Mark Kingland Dairyland Board Chair, and Jim Sherman Director of Power Supply & Strategy Execution at Dairyland Power. Others recognized were retired Norris employees Donna Smallwood, Vic Klingler, Rhonda Huddleston, and Karen Long. The retired Board of Directors recognized were Larry Buser, Barb Helmink, and Dean Dietrich. President Gordon also recognized our Veterans and thanked them for their sacrifices.

Baylee Millard, Legal and Government Relations Coordinator at AIEC, presented information on the Voices for Cooperative Power (VCP) program, encouraging members to stay informed on state legislation affecting electric cooperatives and to participate in calls to action by contacting legislators. She emphasized that member engagement strengthens local control, reliability, and affordability, and noted that Norris is offering a $75 bill credit drawing for members who sign up, with the winner to be selected on March 5.

During the meeting, three future leaders were introduced. Owen Ulm of Newton, Illinois; Anna Probst of Teutopolis, Illinois and Eva Mette of Teutopolis, Illinois all represented the co-op in June 2025 on the annual Youth to Washington tour. Owen, Anna, and Eva spent a week in Washington, D.C. seeing monuments, speaking with legislators, and learning more about the cooperative business model. Owen was unable to attend so he sent a short video highlighting his trip. Anna and Eva gave a speech reflecting on their time in D.C. and thanked the members for their support.

President McClure explained the election process for the Board of Directors. Three petitions were submitted from the three incumbents. Since there were not any contested seats for the positions on the board, the Cooperative did not send ballots to the members. Mr. McClure stated the three Directors that will be seated for a three-year term are: Dan Strine, Wabash County; Ron Viehman, Lawrence County; and Brandon Graves, Richland County. The rest of the Board was then recognized: Kurt Holscher, Crawford County; Justin Parcel, Clark County; Ted Helmink, Cumberland County; Dave Sheppard, Jasper County; Ava Lemmon, Crawford County; Dave Thoele, Effingham County; Scott Weiss, Lawrence County; and Gordon McClure, Jasper County.

President McClure asked if there was any Unfinished Business. Nothing was presented. He then asked for New Business. Nothing was presented.
